The IRB approved the protocol on 9/3/2024.

Within 60 days prior to the expiration date or within 30 days of study closure, whichever is earlier, you are to complete and submit a Continuing Review Form to request continuing approval or closure. If continuing review approval is not granted before the expiration date of 9/10/2025, approval of this protocol expires on that date and all research activity must cease.

As a reminder:

- Modifications to this study must be approved by the IRB in advance of implementing changes to the research.
- New information related to this study must be reported to the IRB in accordance with institutional reporting requirements.
- Close this study once all research activities are complete.

This study meets the definition of a clinical trial as it involves the assignment of one or more human subjects to one or more interventions (procedure, device, or drug, including use of placebo or control) to evaluate the effects of the interventions on biomedical or behavioral health outcomes. Please note that the approved IRB consent form template must be posted by the awardee to a federal website to be disclosed. This document must be posted after the research has been closed and no later than 60 days after the last study visit of any subject.

If your study is approved at another institution, confirm submission requirements with the respective research office.

Sincerely,

Institutional Review Board Office
